

THE CURFEW LAW.

Its Benefits Conceded by Every Community in Which One is in Effect.

Edward W. Bok, in the September Ladies' Home Journal, reviews the provisions and operations of the curfew ordinance, which, in variously modified forms, has been adopted by municipal legislative bodies in the West. He gives hearty endorsement to the law, and asserts that, although it met with general opposition at first, there is not a city or town in which it has been enforced, that would have it abolished. "Wherever the curfew ordinance has gone into effect," Mr. Bok contends, "its advantages have been conceded. This is true now of over three hundred towns and cities, some as large in population as Omaha and Topeka. In each case the excellence of the law has become apparent, opposing parents have conceded its wisdom, and even children are said to be pleased with it. It has placed in the hands of the police a most effective weapon for clearing the streets of hoodlums at night, and in many cases where disorder reigned at street corners, quietness, law and order now prevail. So well has the ordinance worked that reports gathered from not less than forty of the towns where it is a law, show that the fine or imprisonment penalty has not been inflicted in a single case. The first caution has served the purpose. These reports show, too, that the ordinance is not enforced in any oppressive manner. In the case of evening or summer entertainments, which would keep the children out later than the curfew hour, authority is easily obtained and readily granted by the mayor or town official for an extension of the time. Its rigid enforcement is applied most strictly to the hoodlum element, and with this class the police claim they have never been able to deal so successfully. It will be at once obvious to all right-minded parents, I think, that they should give the weight of their influence to the curfew ordinance wherever it may be presented. Taken from any and every standpoint it is an excellent thing, and it may wisely be encouraged by parents all over our land."

Faith in Humanity.

Chauncy M. Deane.

Never let us lose our faith in human nature, no matter how often we are deceived. Do not let the deception destroy confidence in the real honesty, goodness, generosity, humanity and friendship which exist in the world. I have lost twenty-five per cent. of all I have ever made in lending money and endorsing notes, and have incurred generally the enmity of those I have helped, because I did not keep it up. But every once in awhile there was somebody who did return in such full measure the credit for the help which was rendered that faith was kept alive, and the beauty and goodness of our human nature made evident.

I have had appointed about a thousand men to employment, which gave them support and a chance to climb to positions of greater responsibility and trust, if they had the inclination and ability. About nine out of ten of them threw stones at me because I did not do better for them and keep pushing them; and yet there are a hundred or so who, by the exercise of their own ability, their own grasp of the situation, have gone on to the accomplishment of such high ambitions and successes, and have appreciated in so many ways the help extended to them by helping others, that again my faith in human nature remains undiminished.

Princess and Her Spinning Wheel.

Selected.

The domestic tastes of the Princess of Wales have a most natural origin. Her father in early manhood was a poor younger son, and lived almost in seclusion with his wife and children. Her mother, a German matron, trained her to housewifery. The Princess is not so fond of anything as sitting with her children around the blazing hearth and plying the spinning wheel. She is as expert in handling the ancient contrivance as any present-day girl of an interior Hungarian village.

After your meals you should have simply a feeling of comfort and satisfaction. You should not feel any special indications that digestion is going on. If you do, you have indigestion, which means not-digestion. This may be the beginning of so many dangerous diseases, that it is best to take it in hand at once and treat it with Shaker Digestive Cordial. For you know that indigestion makes poison, which causes pain and sickness. And that Shaker Digestive Cordial helps digestion. Shaker Digestive Cordial does this by providing the digestive materials in which the sick stomach is wanting. It also tones up and strengthens the digestive organs and makes them perfectly healthy. This is the rationale of its method of cure, as the doctors would say. Sold by druggists, price 10 cents to $1.00 per bottle.

SAVED FROM THE SURGEON'S KNIFE

P. P. P. Lippman's Great Remedy, Saves a Man From Becoming a Cripple.

Mr. Asa Ammons, a well-known citizen of Jacksonville, Florida, was afflicted by a terrible ulcer. Medical skill seemed unavailing in stopping the ravages of the terrible disease. The leg was swollen and intensely painful, as the ulcer had eaten its way down to the very bone. All medicines and treatments having failed to effect a cure, the doctors said the leg must come off. Just when it seemed that Mr. Ammons would become a disabled and a crippled man, he tried P. P. P. Lippman's Great Remedy, and the result was wonderful.

P. P. P. SAVES HIS LEG. "Jacksonville, Fla., July 1, 1895.—Two years ago I had the worst ulcer on my leg I ever saw. It had eaten down to the bone, and my whole leg below my knee, and my foot was swollen and inflamed. The bone was swollen and painful, and discharged a most offensive matter. My physicians said I had necrosis of the bone, and my leg would have to come off. At this stage I commenced to take P. P. P. and to bathe my leg with hot castile soap suds. It began to improve at once and healed rapidly, and is today a sound and useful leg.

"I think P. P. P. Lippman's Great Remedy is all a man could ask for as a blood purifier, as I have known it to cure so meretricious cases of blood poisoning in a remarkably short time. "ASA AMMONS."

The body covered with sores—two bottles of P. P. P. made a positive and permanent cure. This is only one of many thousand similar cases. Search yields at once to P. P. P. That smothered feeling at night, that heavy feeling in the day—can and should be removed; P. P. P. will do it if you only give it a chance. Indigestion and constipation go hand in hand. Headaches and total loss of appetite are the results. Regulate yourself and tone up your stomach with P. P. P.
